

CULTURAL EVENTS COMMITTEE

For the upcoming academic year of 2026/2027, CSA Rotterdam is recruiting active members for the Cultural Events Committee. It is the Cultural Events Committee's duty to organize cultural events involving both Dutch and Chinese culture. You will be responsible for organizing events on different scales that let our members explore and learn about different cultures. Among our successful events are: GFGF, LNY workshops, and city trips. As a Cultural Events Committee member, you will bring people together with different social and cultural backgrounds, while creating unforgettable memories.

ACTIVITIES AS AN ACTIVE MEMBER OF THE CULTURAL EVENT COMMITTEE

You will plan and organize events that will allow participants to explore and learn about culture-related activities. Instead of just enjoying the events of CSA, you will also get a look behind the scenes. You can use your creativity, great organizing and managing skills to make sure the events go smoothly. Furthermore, you will use your social skills to introduce General members and prospective members to the family-like community CSA is known for and make them familiar with the benefits of both cultures. When things get rough, your flexibility and problem-solving skills are put to great use. You can think on your feet and will not let unpredictability put you down. You always keep your head cool and remain optimistic. In short, you will be creating unforgettable moments for our (potential) members. The expected workload of the Cultural Events Committee is 5 to 7 hours per week.

WHAT WE LOOK FOR

As a Cultural Events Committee member, you have to be a person with great organizational skills, and be flexible and creative in order to organize events. Additionally, you are not afraid to engage people into activities and conversations or want to develop this skill. Lastly, you are a team player and confident in working independently.

Are you a creative person who is passionate about hosting great events for people? Then CSA is a great place for you to develop your professional, social and planning competencies and above all, have a great time! You do NOT have to be Chinese to apply.

To summarize, we are looking for someone with:

- Great motivation, energy and passion
- Organizing skills
- Social skills
- Problem-solving skills
- Creative thinking
- Affinity with Dutch and Chinese culture

HEAD POSITION

As the head of the Cultural Events Committee, you will be responsible for leading the team throughout the process of organizing cultural events and work on the event management and strategy. You will work closely with the Secretary to ensure progress is being made within the committee.

Apart from the profile that is described above, we are looking for a head who:

- Takes a strong stance in leading a team or would like to further develop their leadership skills
- Is proactive and assertive
- Has a clear focus and can think critically
- Has the ability to motivate team members
- Has great communication skills
- Can keep the overview over all the current processes within the committee

WHAT CSA OFFERS

We offer you a place to foster your entrepreneurial mindset, ideas and give you the platform to execute these. Moreover, we will actively help you develop your competencies which will greatly benefit your professional career. You will be part of the CSA family and its fun and inclusive internal culture. Hereby expanding your network by becoming part of CSA's extensive network of professionals and alumni through which you can collaborate with students and professionals from diverse backgrounds. Lastly, we provide a fun and multicultural environment in which you can experience first-hand how to manage yourself in a cross-cultural context. With 60+ fellow active members and amazing events, you will undoubtedly make new friends and gain plenty of unforgettable experiences!

EXCITED TO APPLY?

During your student life, an active year at CSA is the ideal opportunity to develop both personally and professionally. Do you picture yourself in the profile above?
